

Mr. McGill

Technology

zmcgill@orrick.k12.mo.us

Technology Course Description

To develop the knowledge and ability to operate a personal computer as well as associated software and hardware used in the classroom. A student will come out of the class with a basic knowledge of Google Platforms (Google Docs, Google Slides, and Google Sheets), use the internet (browsers and search engines), apply computer programming skills (Code.org), understand the importance and application of digital citizenship in their lives. Students will also develop the necessary skills to effectively use the keyboard.

Materials

1. Pencil
2. Ipad

Classroom Rules & Expectations

1. NO FOOD!!
2. Follow district guidelines as it pertains to COVID.
3. Treat classmates, teacher, and all equipment with respect
4. Do not access, touch, or print anything without permission
5. Cell phones will be put into a cell phone caddy at the beginning of class. Students can take them back after class.
6. In addition to my personal classroom rules and expectations, students will also abide by the student handbook.

Grading

Grading procedures will follow the District Policy.